

Ye Shall Be Witnesses
Acts 1:8

The disciples have returned to Jerusalem as Christ had commanded. They were to wait for the promise of the Holy Ghost. At Pentecost while they were assembled together, they were all filled with the Holy Ghost and God began to do a miraculous work.

Peter preached that Jesus is both Lord and Christ and about three thousand souls were added unto them.

The gift of the Holy Ghost is promised to more than the apostles.
Acts 2: 39.

1. It is promised to you!
Peter declared that the same power witnessed in them was good for all those present. This is still true!
2. It is promised to our children!
The power of the Holy Ghost is not limited to one generation. Our children need to know the amazing power of God at work in their lives.
3. It is promised for generations to come!
The Holy Spirit's power is just as real today as it was two thousand years ago.

If the story of Jesus Christ has diminished, it is not due to a weakness in the Holy Ghost, but rather a lack of will on the part of man to tell it.

4. It is promised to all the Lord has called!
It is not limited to a few but to as many as he has called.

His power has limitless channels of witnesses.

There is a requirement: Repent and be baptized for the remission of sins – Acts 2: 38

God's Power in the Holy Ghost is exclusive to the believer.
