

"And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams." 1Samuel 15:22

There are a thousand reasons to disobey the Lord's commands, but only one reason to obey. We obey, because the most powerful being of eternity has commanded it. It is what God desires most from His children. All the well done chores of a child are negated by one disobedient act. In one instant a doting parent becomes a disciplinarian. Is God any less displeased with us when we willfully disobey? We plead for His blessings, but totally disregard His basic commands. Love your God. Love one another. Tell everyone. These desires are from the heart of God. Believers in Islamic countries are being murdered for hire. This "religion of peace" is putting bounties on the heads of evangelical pastors. It is evident by their actions that theirs is a "religion of lies," and Satan is the father of liars. Regardless of consequences, we should obey the God who can destroy both body and soul in Hell. Suicide bombers obey their god by destroying their bodies only to find that they believed a lie. How tragic to give your life for a lie! Our Government preaches "human rights" on the world stage while trampling liberty underfoot at home. They do not regard or obey any oath they've taken while swearing it on God's Word. I pity their ultimate end. Our soldiers die in foreign lands in engineered conflicts designed to produce immense profit from both sides for bankers who could care less for the blood of patriots or the Law of God. The Supreme Law of the land is shredded by oath bound politicians and judges for personal gain and power. We are truly living in the days of total evil. Believers are deluded into thinking that they're doing right, because they compare their lives to the wickedness that surrounds them instead of the Standard of God's Word. It matters little what the children of perdition do. Their punishment is secure. Your obedience is what concerns God.

God only cares that we obey,
It matters little what we say,
Our sacrifices stand for naught,
If we don't practice what we're taught. -CGP

Your obedience may well bring sacrifice, and sacrifice may be required, but it never takes the place of obedience. Your sacrifice for God will never replace your obedience to God. His first command is, "Love me," not, "Serve me." If He has your heart, He'll have your hands.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Romans 12:1-2
