

"Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins."
James 5:20

Giving the Gospel to the lost is more vital than saving their physical life. God will resurrect the dead in Christ, but the unbeliever, dies forever. Eternity is never over. Convincing someone to trust God is as simple as presenting the Word of God. The Holy Spirit will do the convincing. Believers are the KING'S heralds crying aloud to any who listen, "Oyez! Oyez!" The Word of God is the medium of faith, and faith is the enabler of the damned and dying. Our job is to get them to the "Physician." He alone can heal the dying wounded. If we proclaim "The Word," God will ensure that it fulfills its purpose. Truth needs no defense. It is the Sword of the Spirit. You don't defend a sword, you use it. If we become skilled in its use, we can rescue more dead and dying. Once a soul converts, his sins are "remembered no more." God puts them as far away as the east from the west. Sin, once forgiven by God, is forgotten. The only part of our past God is concerned with is unconfessed sin. He has promised to faithfully forgive every confessed sin. Why do we tarry so long in coming for His mercy? Are we enamored of our sin, or do we let Satan convince us that there is no point, because we'll just do it again? You'll get dirty over and over, but does that stop you from taking a bath? Sin will dog us until we cross the threshold of Heaven's gate, but we don't have to live like dirty bums while we traverse this vale of sin and sorrow. There are literally thousands that need the Gospel. We should always be looking for an opportunity to give the Truth to another. We stay cleansed by confessing our sins to God.

Convert the soul that's trapped in sin,
So they may also enter in,
That they may know God's boundless love,
And spend eternity above. ~CGP

Without someone having brought the Gospel to us, we, also, would still be undone. Do not hesitate to speak the Truth to anyone. It doesn't matter how it's received. It only matters that it's given. Did you believe the first time you heard the Truth? God works from the inside out. God works in the heart.

"For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;" Philippians 2:13-15
