

"Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come." John 16:13

Truth will liberate. Freedom is God-given. The more men dominate others, the more God-like they feel. Power corrupts men. It is a heady potion that intoxicates and destroys both the dominator and the dominated. God has given every man, equality under His Law and equal access to His mercy, grace and love. We have freedom to make informed choices under the Law of God. "It is written." He keeps no secrets about the consequences of our choices. The consequences are predetermined, and will not be mitigated for any reason. God's sovereignty is never impugned by men's choices; to the contrary, it is reaffirmed by every single decision. If I have been set at liberty by God, man cannot enslave me. As Patrick Henry put it, "...as for me, give me liberty or give me death!" Death is the ultimate liberation for the believer and the ultimate captivity for the unbeliever. "It is written." Our nation is blessed because it was founded on Truth. We have strayed from that Truth, and God's blessings can no longer be showered upon us. We must return to the Truth if we are to survive as a nation. The Spirit of Truth has been quenched by wickedness in high places, by men who think they can escape the sovereign wrath of God. As stated, "Men's choices do not impugn God's sovereignty." Honest men will follow Truth.

When Freedom takes its rightful place,
And honest men are given space,
To live and breathe in Liberty,
Truth will prevail and they'll be free. ~CGP

"To whom much is given, much is required." Woe, to the leaders of nations that think power rests solely with them! The blood of innocents they have caused to be slaughtered will be required at their hands. Many die daily to satisfy the greed of wicked powerful men. God said it best through the pen of the Apostle, "The love of money is the root of all evil." There's another saying that's just as valid. "Follow the money." If I dwell within the perfect Law of Christ's Liberty, I have no need of money. It will be provided as the need arises. Peter told the Pharisees that he and his Master paid taxes. Jesus was a bit put out by that gross assumption on Peter's part, but sent him where he could find the necessary funds. He told him to do what Peter knew how to do, fish. The coin was in the fish's mouth. Imagine that! Truth will ultimately prevail!

"Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17
