

"Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them." Psalm 139:16

Before you were born, God had already decided what your eye-color, hair-color, skin-color and all the other parts of were going to look like. As a matter of fact, He writes it down in His book. The unborn is a living soul before the moment of conception. All procreation does is provide the physical form that the soul and spirit will occupy. God decides who is and who isn't, not the abortion clinic. Persons who take the lives of the unborn are nothing more than murderers who slay the helpless child with the mother's consent. Under law, that's felony murder. Every innocent slain will have their blood required at the hand of the murderers who spilled it. They let murderers go free because of reasonable doubt. Shouldn't the unborn have the same courtesy? The debate over it has been ongoing ever since our Supreme Court legislated abortion on demand. The kicker is they fund it with taxpayer's dollars. I may oppose abortion, but I still end up paying for it anyway. That coerces me into an unwilling accessory to murder. The KING is coming, and He will execute vengeance on all the Margaret Sanger henchmen. Mothers are being turned into baby-killers with lies and propaganda. Young men are using the murder of the unborn as an excuse to abdicate their duty as fathers. Fornication is S.O.P. nowadays, when it used to be viewed with disgust and disdain. We are living in a nation of lust run amuck! I don't think Sodom and Gomorrah were much worse. There are heathens and pagans with higher moral standards than the average American. We need to urgently get the Truth to America before it's too late! We need to get hold of the reins and turn Her head before she plunges into the abyss of no return. Let me pose a question. Who conquered the Roman Empire? The answer is; No One did. It's more a question of "what" conquered the Roman Empire than "whom." It was immorality and evil at the highest levels that finally managed to undo in a few short years what took decades to accomplish. The decadence of the Romans knew no bounds. The games at the coliseum were no more brutal than what takes place hundreds of times each day in abortion clinics. In most instances, the Romans gave their victims a chance to fight before they killed them. They dissolved their empire from within and if we're not careful who we elect we'll be hot on their trail!

"For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness... Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths. The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace." Isaiah 59:3, 7, 8
