

"And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it." Ezekiel 17:24

The witnesses of God's grandeur have stood for centuries silently pointing upwards to the Creator. Men stand in awe of their majestic presence, but never see past the top of the outstretched boughs that frame Heavens in a sweeping gesture. Even the trees know that there is a God. Men have deluded themselves into thinking that somehow these marvelous testaments to God's glory have simply evolved from some green pea soup of chemicals. I like the anecdote about the child who asked, "Where do we come from, Daddy?" The father carefully explained the story of Creation. The child then asked the atheist mother the same question. She proceeded to outline in great detail the evolutionistic theory, how men had evolved from apes, and so on. The confused child ran back to the father, and asked why there were two entirely different stories. "That's easy," replied the father. "I told you where my side of the family came from, and your mother told you where hers came from." While amusing, the anecdote illustrates the stark contrast between men's reasoning and God's Truth. Just because something is plausible doesn't mean it's possible. If something is contrary to the Truth on even one point, it is a lie. The best lies are 99.99% Truth. It's easy to swallow poison if it's mixed with honey. Satan is a master liar, and he's been perfecting his craft for millennia. He's had generation after generation of men on which to practice. He's been with God, he knows the Truth, and therefore, is in a unique position to craft the best counterfeits. Why do you think there are so many "versions" of God's Word? It is called "sleight of hand" in magic. You're looking somewhere else while being deceived. It's the old "shell game," they all look the same, but only one has the pea. Satan doesn't care which counterfeit you choose. All that glitters is not gold. If you do some research, you'll find that modern versions omit or reword portions of critical scripture. If Truth is changed, it is not the Truth.

"Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen." Romans 1:22-25
